First published in Corpalism Set in a dystopian future all wealth is in the hands of the Corporations; owned and controlled by the secret elite, the 1%, and their political lackeys. The majority poor are being re-located to sink estates North of the M4 where they eke out a futile existence, saddled with crippling debts from birth, and tied into servitude. Terry's job is to effect these re-locations and he does the job without compunction. Unfortunately for Terry he is late for work once too often and is himself relocated, condemned to spend the rest of his days in a 'Boro sink. When he arrives, he is housed in a run down apartment and assigned to sanitation duties. Unwittingly he attracts the attention of the power structure within the estate and soon finds himself enmeshed in violent intrigue. But Terry is not all he seems. Why is he there and who does he really work for?
